For Zion, Asaph and especially Anastasia – our little Star, for whom we wrote this lullaby.
May you always point people to
Jesus just like the Bethlehem star.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are.
Up above the world so high,
Over Bethlehem tonight.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are.

Twinkle, twinkle, way up high,
Angels singing in the sky.

Shepherds hear the angel say,
“Christ the Saviour born today.”

Twinkle, twinkle, way up high,
Angels singing in the sky.

Twinkle, twinkle, from afar,
Wise men following the star.

Bringing gifts to give the king,
Bowing down to worship him.

Twinkle, twinkle, from afar,
Wise men following the star.

Twinkle, twinkle, in the night,
Mary hugs her baby tight.

“Call him Jesus,” Joseph says,
“He’ll save people from their sins.”

Twinkle, twinkle, in the night,
Mary hugs her baby tight.

The background is a dark teal night sky filled with numerous white stars of varying sizes and brightness. In the lower half of the image, a stylized Earth is shown as a curved horizon. The landmasses are colored in shades of yellow and gold, while the oceans are a deep teal. The Earth is partially obscured by soft, white, ethereal clouds at the bottom. The overall mood is serene and celestial.

Twinkle, twinkle, up above,
God the Father looks with love.

Gave his Son so he might bring
Peace to all who trust in him.

A night scene with a dark blue sky filled with stars. A large, bright star in the upper left corner has two beams of light shining down towards a baby in a manger on the right. The foreground is filled with yellow flowers and green grass. In the background, there are dark silhouettes of mountains and a body of water.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!

God loves you so much! And Christmas shows us God's love in action. The twinkling Bethlehem star in this amazing true story was pointing to a baby. Not just any baby, but God's own Son who came to rescue us. Little baby Jesus grew up to die for our sin and rise again so that he could bring peace between God and us. You can read the Christmas story in the Bible in Matthew 1:18-2:12 and Luke 2:1-20.

A happy person (why are they happy?)

Count
how many times you see...

Baby Jesus
